Dear Members,
if you haven't yet registered for the CNNC 2011-2012 year on Community Pass, what are you waiting for? We have a calendar filled with great events ahead, so click today. dues are only $50 per family.

Many thanks to everyone who came out for our first board meeting/ social - I enjoyed meeting all of you and am so excited we have so many new people signed on to help! And a big thanks to Cathy and Don Farnan for hosting and the socials committee for creating a really fun back-to-school keg party in September.

Also, if you are one of Chatham's entrepreneurs, consider taking an ad out in the newsletter or on our website! It's a great way to reach Chatham families while supporting the club at the same time! Just contact Nikki at Nicolemckeeon@msn.com.

Hope to see you at the Hunt or the Halloween party, not sure which I am looking forward to more!

Nikki

NEW GROUP Chatham Strollers!!!

Lets get out of the house and enjoy the beautiful fall weather together! This is a weekly walk for you and your child to explore the neighborhoods & parks of Chatham, meet other parents, exercise, and most importantly get some fresh air.

Each week we will pick a new destination and meeting time. The walks will range from 1-2 miles approximately. Please email Kristen Segal if you are interested at kristen.troy@yahoo.com! Looking forward to our weekly Stroll!

book club

Read a great book and come discuss it with new friends and neighbors! See our book selections for this Fall below.

The CNNC Book Club meets at 8pm on the third Wednesday of each month at a member's home. For more details and information on the location of each meeting please contact Deborah Winkler at 973-236-9340 or email her at Deborah.r.winkler@jpmorgan.com

OCTOBER: The Dressmaker of Khair Khana by Gayle Lemmon

This is a true story of a courageous female entrepreneur, Kamila, who becomes the sole breadwinner for her five siblings. It offers a rare glimpse into the lives of Afghan women under the Taliban.

NOVEMBER: White Teeth by Zadie Smith

This story focuses on the later lives of two wartime friends in London. The author takes on race, sex, class, history, and the minefield of gender politics, and such is her wit and inventiveness that these weighty subjects seem effortlessly light.

DECEMBER: One Day by David Nicholls (Movie version in the US on Aug. 19th)

Emma and Dexter meet for the first time on the night of their graduation in 1988 and are revisited each year on the same date. One Day is a funny/sad love story spanning twenty years, a book about growing up – how we change, how we stay the same.
